

EcoMat Conference 2025

28 July-1 August 2025, İstanbul -TÜRKİYE

Dear EcoMat 2025 Conference Community,

On behalf of the Organizing Committee, we extend our heartfelt thanks to all who contributed to the success of EcoMat 2025. Your active participation, insightful discussions, and commitment to advancing knowledge have made this conference truly memorable.

EcoMat 2025 brought together a vibrant community of 301 attendees. The global dimension of EcoMat 2025 was marked by participants from 14 countries, including Australia, China, Germany, India, Japan, Korea, Russia, Singapore, Spain, Sweden, Thailand, Türkiye, and the USA.

This year, we were delighted to receive 134 abstract submissions from all over the world, resulting in 99 oral and 35 poster presentations. Over the course of the program, 6 Plenary Speakers, 45 Keynote Speakers, and 11 Invited Speakers enriched the event, alongside 38 oral and 35 poster presentations delivered across 27 engaging sessions.

We are especially grateful for the generous contributions from our sponsors: Altınay Technology Group, Assan Alüminyum, Çolakoğlu Metalurji, Department of Applied Biology and Chemical Technology, GCA, Hayat Holding, MacDermid Enthone, Research Institute for Smart Energy, TEMSA and supporters: AVOYA, GALDER, GTA Mining and Foreign Trade, İTÜ Alumni Assoc., METEM, OTEP, SMI, Daikin, and Taysad whose backing ensured the conference's smooth execution and rich program. By their commitment, our sponsors and supporters played a pivotal role in elevating the overall experience for all attendees.

We are delighted to announce that Prof. Dr. Feng Gao, Head of the Optoelectronics Unit at Linköping University, Sweden, has been honored with the prestigious EcoMat Mid-Career Award. In addition, Prof. Dr. Yifei Yuan, Professor at Wenzhou University, China, has received the EcoMat Young Researcher Award, recognizing his outstanding contributions and promising achievements in the field.

As we close this year's gathering, we celebrate not only the scientific contributions but also the spirit of collaboration and exchange that defined EcoMat 2025.

We sincerely thank each of you for your engagement and look forward to continuing this journey together.

With gratitude and best regards,

Prof. Dr. Zijian Zheng

Prof. Dr. Özgül Keleş
